

Answers

Green - correct, Red - incorrect.

1. What does MSC stand for?
  - a. Marine Stewardship Council
  - b. Marine Science Corporation
  - c. Management Sea Council

2. Which of the following statements apply to MSC certified sustainable seafood?
  - a. Fish that is fresh and high quality
  - b. Fish that comes from healthy populations
  - c. Fish that is caught using methods that minimize damage to the environment
  - d. Fish from fisheries that are responsibly managed
  - e. Fish that is caught in high welfare conditions
  - f. All of the above

3. Where does the MSC-certified fish come from?
  - a. It is farmed
  - b. It is wild caught
  - c. It can be both farmed and wild caught

4. Which company do we get MSC certified fish from?

.....

5. What does C of C stand for?
  - a. Chain of Command
  - b. Chain of Custody
  - c. Certifier of Crab

6. What does this mean?
  - a. It's the way the boxes are sealed
  - b. It means the supplier owns the fish
  - c. It means we control traceability of the fish from delivery to service

7. Where do the delivery notes for the MSC fish go?

.....

8. Where is the MSC fish kept?

.....

9. How do the customers know which fish is MSC certified?
  - a. There will be an MSC logo on the menu

- b. They'll know because of the type of fish
- c. They won't

10. If we run out of the fish with the logo during the service what should we do?

- a. Stop serving that menu item
- b. Substitute with another fish from the fridge
- c. All of the above

11. Why do we want certification to use MSC certified fish?

- a. It shows that the fish comes from a sustainable source not from an overfished area
- b. It shows our (the company) commitment to its environmental policy and shows our customers that we care about where we source our food products
- c. All of the above